

Descendants of Louis Haupt

Generation No. 1

1. LOUIS¹ HAUPT^{1,2} was born August 03, 1838 in Germany, and died 1911 in Runnels Co., Texas^{3,4}. He married (1) UNKNOWN⁵. She was born in Germany. He met (2) JULIETT ARTIESHOUSKY⁶ Abt. 1889 in (Prob.) Texas, daughter of UNKNOWN ARTIESHOUSKY and UNKNOWN. She was born 1855 in Marienwerder, Germany (West Prussia) -- now Kwidzyn, Poland, and died 1914 in Runnels Co., Texas.

Marriage Notes for LOUIS HAUPT and JULIETT ARTIESHOUSKY:

Since we surmise at least one of Louis and Juliett's children was born in Germany, they probably were married in Germany, unless a child was born out of wedlock...unusual for that day.

DLC 6/18/2003

Endnotes

1. Email Communication with Michael Casey 9/16/2000. I'm sorry I have not gotten back to you, however, I cannot locate the paperwork on the Haupts which I wrote down some info. on a few years ago. Let me see what I can remember: Louis Haupt was born 8/3/1838 in Germany. He was a street car conductor in Berlin where he was married with kids when he met and later married our G. Grandmother Juliett Artieschaufsky (one of a thousand spellings which I read!!). If I remember correctly, Louis came to the U.S. at a different date than his wife. I am not sure of the date, however, I do know that Juliett came to the U.S. with her brother (Henry) and uncle (forgot name). They came in through the port in Indianola, TX which was later destroyed by a hurricane! Indianola was to the south of Freeport, TX. The only child of Louis and Juliett Haupt born in Germany was Rudolph who immigrated to the U.S. in 1888 when he was four (most likely with Juliett). Granny was definitely born in Texas as was the rest of her siblings (except Rudolph). The interesting question is this: Did Louis leave his first wife because of a fling with Juliett which got her pregnant? A taboo in those days. Did Louis and Juliett leave Germany to start a new life and to escape their "sin"? Either way it looks like we have some other half-cousins in Germany. Interesting! David, I think what we need to do to find out more info. is to check into the surviving Haupts and Artieschaufskys and find out what they might know. I know that Rudolph had a son named Ernest born in 1918. I do not know if he is still alive. I also know that Henry Artieschaufsky had a grand son named Adolph (go figure!) whose son (cannot remember name) is alive and living in central Texas. Years ago, I spoke with his wife who said that the Artieschaufskys actually came from what is now Poland (makes sense) from a town called Marionwerder. I noticed that there is also a Marionwerder near Berlin, so the puzzle only gets more complex. (Note: Marienwerder - note spelling - is present day Kwidzyn, Poland - pronounced Kvee'-Jen)...dlc 1/1/04 That's it for now cousin, however, I am greatly interested in knowing what you find out in your endeavors.

3. 1920 Runnels Co., TX census, Online, I cannot find Louis Haupt on this census. I suspect he must have died prior to 1920. I have yet to find his "homemade gravestone" at Winters (Fairview).
4. David L. Casey, Tombstone of Louis Haupt, 1838-1911 Tombstone of Louis Haupt is in Fairview Cemetery, Winters, Runnels Co., TX. It is just West of the main road that enters Fairview past the 4th crossroad on the right near a large evergreen shrub/tree. It is cement and embedded with the Spill funeral home marker that was provided at the time of burial (identical in fashion to headstone of James Hill Casey "II".) Stone made by O.H. Casey per Bonnie Casey Fairey.
